

MEDICAL REPORT IN CASE OF A CLAIM

To benefit from SOS Evasan S.A. insurance services, you must call Evasan's Alarm Centre (24 hours per day, 365 days per year) within 24 hours: +41 22 929 52 52. In case of an ambulatory consultation, please take this document with you. The doctor will fill it out.

Doctor: This document does not prove any coverage for the expenses!

SOS Evasan S.A. is not a health insurance, but a repatriation and assistance insurance company. In order to consider a coverage for the claim, SOS Evasan S.A. must receive a full, detailed and legible medical report and the estimated date of stabilization for an eventual repatriation. Please fill this form and send it as soon as possible to our medical department:

by fax: +41 22 929 52 55 or by e-mail at: info@evasan.com

MEDICAL REPORT

Insured:	Family name:	First name:
	Date of birth:	N° of insurance policy:
Consultation:	From:	Treatment foreseen the:
Indicated troubles:
Anamnesis: (illnesses or accidents in the past...)
When and under which circumstances did the patient notice the affection for the first time?
Has the patient been previously treated for this affection? If yes, when and from which doctor?
Have other pre-existent illnesses or accidents, handicaps, etc. influenced on the present affection? If yes, which ones?
What kind of medicines did the patient take before the beginning of your treatment?
Medical observations: (general and local status, medical tests results...)
Diagnostic:
Treatment : (hospital, ambulatory)
What medicine did you prescribe?
Medical wise is the repatriation possible? : <input type="checkbox"/> YES <input type="checkbox"/> NO If yes: When and under which circumstances? If no: why?
Remarks:

Date:

Stamp and doctor's signature:

Ambulatory consultations have to be paid by the patient. These will be reimbursed in function of his contract.

In accordance with the Swiss Federal Law on data protection and the other laws regarding the protection of confidential medical information to which the contract is subject; in compliance with the relevant provisions of the General and Special Conditions of Insurance, which the insurance taker has read and approved at the time of contracting, the latter authorises Evasan to receive and process the medical information about the insured person.